

Minutes of the Meeting of February 28, 2008

The Bryn-Rose Civic Association met in the Radnor United Methodist Church, 930 Conestoga Road, Rosemont PA, at 7:00 pm on the above date.

Present

Bob Adams, President; Treasurer; Lynn Ellis, Secretary; and residents of the community.

Minutes

Bob Adams called the meeting to order. Gina Bezdziecki motioned to approved the minutes of the January 24, 2008 meeting, seconded by Erma Calicyo, the motion was unanimously passed.

New Business

Bob Adams met with David Bashore, David Blake, Robert Loeper, Bill Martin of the Township staff and Linda Gonzolez of Callanan Avenue regarding the student rental problems on her street and a proposal that landlords complete an affidavit with the number of people they are renting to. Radnor's staff is waiting for the outcome of a Lower Merion, Montgomery County law suit regarding the number of unrelated renters allowed (3 = a family). It seems that there are now students living at 214 Rockingham Road and the triangular house on that corner of Conestoga Road. Mr. Adams noted that the 132 Eachus Avenue permit has been suspended from renting to students and that Robert Loeper is pulling the permit on 246 Callanan Avenue for rental unfit for people.

Bob Adams asked Police Superintendent John Rutty that Flip & Baileys bar windows be closed by 9 p.m. Also, Spano Brothers bar has a sandwich sign out on the sidewalk advertising specials, which is against the Zoning Hearing Board agreement. Mr. Adams also thanked Superintendent Rutty for the police presence with flares at the top of the curve on Conestoga Road. This was on the night of the large coalition meeting at the Methodist Church.

Betty Lou Norcini told the group of the problems she's had at her business and the Norcini home on the corner of Wentworth Lane/Summit Terrace and Conestoga Road. There has been beer cups, trash, public urination and K-turns in her driveway
